Old Business

- 8th grade Orientation is Jan. 24th, Debbie Marks and Shannon Wong volunteered to represent boosters.
- Nancy contacted Jam On It regarding hosting an AAU basketball clinic. Would need 5 courts, make $100 per hour per court. Jam on It pays for refs. Something we might be interested in next year, feel it is very late to try to do this year. Would make a large profit on concessions. Waiting to hear back from them as they are reaching out to Perry and other schools.
